Part one: Introduction

Introduction to the Registers of Scotland Publication Scheme - Its Purpose and Aims

The Registers of Scotland (RoS), along with other Scottish Public Authorities has a duty in terms of Section 23 of FOISA to adopt maintain and review a Publication Scheme approved by the Scottish Information Commissioner and publish the information in the Scheme.

The Scheme must specify the classes of information which it publishes or which it intends to publish and the manner of publication. It also discloses whether any charge will be applied.

Under section 1 of FOISA, anyone has a right to request from RoS any information held by RoS which is not listed in this Scheme and is entitled to be given such information provided that no exemption provision in FOISA applies to such information.

The Role of the Registers of Scotland

RoS - Status and Functions

RoS is the non-Ministerial Government Department statutorily responsible for registering a variety of legal documents in Scotland. We are part of the Scottish Government and are associated with the Finance and Sustainable Growth portfolio.

RoS is headed by the Keeper of the Registers (the Keeper), who is a non-Ministerial office holder and who also acts as Chief Executive of RoS. He is appointed by the Scottish Ministers with the consent of the Lord President of the Court of Session. He is accountable to the Lands Tribunal and higher Scottish civil courts in respect of the exercise of his statutory functions. He is accountable to the Scottish Ministers for achieving financial objectives as determined by them.

The Keeper is responsible for the running of RoS and for the statutory functions placed upon him in relation to the management, control and maintenance of the following public registers of legal documents and deeds relating to property.

The Registers are:

- Land Register;
- General Register of Sasines;
- Register of Inhibitions and Adjudications;
- Register of Deeds and Probative Writs in the Books of Council and Session;
- Register of Judgments;
- Register of Community Interests in Land;
- Register of Sites of Special Scientific Interest;
- Register of Protests;
- Register of Great Seal;
- Register of Cachet Seal;
- Register of Prince's Seal;
- Register of Quarter Seal;
- Register of Floating Charges (expected to become live in 2009)

The following Registers remain under the Keeper's control but are no longer in use:

- Register of Service of Heirs;
- Register of Hornings;
- Register of Crown Grants;
- Register of Sheriffs' Commissions

Our work is dominated by the two main registers which relate to rights in land: the Land Register and the General Register of Sasines. The General Register of Sasines is a register of deeds which has existed since 1617, and was the mainstay of Scottish land-ownership until the introduction of the modern, map-based Land Register in 1979. The Land Register is gradually replacing the older Sasine Register. Under the Keeper's statutory powers, the Land Register provides and indemnifies (guarantees) legal title to interests in land in Scotland.

The Registers of Scotland handle over half a million registration transactions each year and we also make information from the registers publicly available. Our work is demand-led, fluctuating in response to activity in the property market, particularly the housing component. Our work is self-financing, being funded by the fees charged for registrations and for providing information from the registers.

RoS – Structure

With a staff of over 1,400 people located in offices in Edinburgh and Glasgow, The Keeper is assisted by the Deputy Keeper and the Managing Director. The Keeper chairs the Management Board of RoS which is the main decision making body. The Board meets twice a year to confirm the strategic direction. The members of the Board of RoS are as follows.

Jim Meldrum, the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland and Chief Executive (Chairman)

Bruce Beveridge, Deputy Keeper

Sheenagh Adams, Managing Director

Alison Chisholm, Finance and Planning Director

Mike Traynor, Information Director

Andy Smith, Registration Director

Stephen Dingle, Non Executive Director

Ian Moffett, Non Executive Director

Sheila Terry, Non Executive Director

Reporting to the Board are (i) the Executive Management Team comprising the Deputy Keeper, the Managing Director, the Finance and Planning, Information, registration, HR and Communications Directors and (ii) the Partnership Board chaired by the Keeper and comprising the Deputy Keeper, Managing Director, Information Director and a senior representative from BT who are the IT partners of RoS.

Further details of the role and responsibilities of RoS can be obtained from our Framework Document, which can be found in the Publication Scheme under Information on strategy, structure and performance.

Decisions on the governance of the Agency are made by the Board with the support of operational Registration Directorates. RoS policies and procedures are detailed in our publications and in our staff manuals and handbooks which are published on our website and in our Publication Scheme under Information and Guidance for Staff.

RoS – Vision and Purpose: “Recording and safeguarding your rights.”

This will be achieved as follows:

- the registers for which RoS are responsible are kept current and accurate;
- public access is provided to all information contained in our registers in ways that meet the needs of our customers;
- we make best use of ICT in our business activities and for the benefit of our customers; and
- our services represent the best value for money possible.

RoS - Key Objectives for 2008-2013

- Deliver our core registration and information business accurately, efficiently, effectively, economically and timeously.
- Increase Land Register coverage.
- Develop our registration and information services in ways that will enable us to fulfil our purpose.
- Realise business benefits from continuous improvement and innovation.

The steps to be taken to meet these objectives over 2008-09 and the whole five years of the Plan are set out in more detail in Section C of the Corporate Plan

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA)

FOISA covers Scottish public authorities including RoS and aims to make information held by authorities more widely available. There is a Freedom of Information Act 2000 which applies to many public bodies throughout the United Kingdom, but because RoS forms part of the Scottish Administration, The Act which has relevance to RoS is FOISA.

FOISA requires RoS to adopt and maintain a publication scheme which details the classes of information it proactively publishes, or intends to publish. Information which is made available in accordance with this Publication Scheme is considered to be exempt information under section 25 of FOISA (information otherwise accessible). If you request any information listed in this Publication Scheme then you will be provided with it after payment of any stated charge

Alongside FOISA, the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 (the EIRs) provide a separate right of access to the environmental information that we hold. This publication scheme also contains details of the environmental information that we routinely make available.

Where information is not published under this scheme, you can request it from us under FOISA or, in the case of environmental information, the EIRs. For further information on accessing information not covered by this scheme, refer to – How to access information not available under the scheme (see Page 11).

Formulation of the Publication Scheme

The RoS Publication Scheme has been designed to comply not only with the minimum legal requirements but also to draw attention to and encourage greater use of the wide range of material that the organisation publishes. It is also designed to help people identify, find and obtain the information that they need.

Responsibility for the Publication Scheme

Requests for information should not be made directly to the contacts named below. Requests should be made to RoS Customer Services Centres (details on pages 8 and 9)

The person responsible for managing and maintaining the Publication Scheme on a daily basis is:

Kathy McNeill
Account Manager
Registers of Scotland
Meadowbank House
153 London Road
Edinburgh EH8 7AU.

Phone 0131 479 3620
Fax 0131 479 3688
e-mail kathy.mcneil@ros.gov.uk

Ultimate responsibility for RoS's Publication Scheme lies with:

Isla Macleod
Chief Communications Manager
Registers of Scotland
Meadowbank House
153 London Road
Edinburgh EH8 7AU.

Phone 0131 200 3975
Fax 0131 479 3688
e-mail isla.macleod@ros.gov.uk

The publication scheme will be regularly updated and kept under continual review. In addition, it is a requirement under FOISA that publication schemes are reviewed from time to time.

Copyright

Material supplied through this Publication Scheme is subject to Crown copyright unless otherwise stated.

At RoS, we are generally content to let people use and reproduce most of the Crown copyright material that we produce (including material from our registers) free of charge, in any format or medium, provided they reproduce it accurately and do not use it in a misleading context. We simply ask that they should acknowledge it as Crown copyright.

However, there are a few exceptions to this general position, and there are special copyright notices on our material that show what we expect and what we ask you to do if you want to reproduce relevant material. Examples of these special notices are:

"© Crown copyright 2008. This document (excluding the logo of the Registers of Scotland Executive Agency) may be reproduced free of charge in any format or medium for research, private study or for internal circulation within an organisation. This is subject to it being reproduced accurately and not used in a misleading context. The material must be acknowledged as Crown copyright and the title of the document specified. This data must not be used for commercial purposes, nor copied, distributed, sold or published in any way. For any other use of this material, please apply to the Registers of Scotland for a licence, either online at www.ros.gov.uk, by e-mail to business.development@ros.gov.uk or by writing to Business Development, Registers of Scotland, Meadowbank House, 153 London Road, Edinburgh EH8 7AU

"© Crown copyright 2008. Applications to reproduce the material in this document should be addressed to Business Development, Registers of Scotland, Meadowbank House, 153 London Road, Edinburgh EH8 7AU."

Permission to reproduce Crown protected material does not extend to any material accessed through the Publication Scheme that is in the copyright of third parties. You must obtain authorisation to reproduce such material from the copyright holders concerned. For further information please see:

Making the Information Available

Accessing Information under the Publication Scheme

There are several methods by which scheme users can access the information available through the publication scheme; via the RoS website, www.ros.gov.uk and the RoS Customer Service Centres in Edinburgh and Glasgow, whose contact details are given below.

Currently, the RoS website is divided as follows:

- Customer Services
- Fees and Charges
- Products and Services
- Publications
- Registration

There are also sections on Crown Copyright and Freedom of Information.

You may download information which is freely available on the RoS website free of charge. (Please note that there is a fee for accessing information from the registers online – see our Registers Direct service).

If you wish a hard copy, please make your request in writing (letter, fax or e-mail) to one of the Customer Service Centres. You can also make your request by telephone or in person if you visit one of RoS's two Customer Service Centres. You do not need an appointment to visit a Customer Service Centre.

We may also be able to provide material in other Formats such as audio tape, large print, Braille or in a language other than English. Please contact one of our Customer Service centres if you require this.

When making a request please let us have full contact details including a telephone number so that we may contact you to clarify your request if necessary. If you want information on a property you should provide as much information as possible e.g. full postal address (including postcode) and/or a location deed or plan. If we are unsure exactly what information you require we will contact you to clarify your request.

Charging

Charging Under Fees in the Registers of Scotland Amendment Order 2005

RoS is self-financing. It raises the revenue that it needs to operate by levying fees for recording and registration in the public registers it maintains. It also charges for providing information from the registers and for added-value services such as searches in the registers using our Registers Direct service. The charges made are governed by legislation (The Fees in the Registers of Scotland Amendment Order 2005) and guidance on the fees can be found at <http://www.ros.gov.uk/fees/infofees.html>

Typically the charge for a deed is less than £10. If the cost of any items chargeable under the Fees Order is greater than £10 then you will be advised before the charge is incurred.

Other charges

Unless otherwise specified in the classes of information, all information published through this scheme is available free of charge where it can be downloaded from our website or where it can be sent to you electronically by email.

We reserve the right to impose charges for providing information in paper copy or on computer disc. Charges will reflect the actual costs or reproduction and postage to the authority, as set out below.

In the event that a charge for copying or postage is to be levied, you will be advised of the charge and how it has been calculated. Information will not be provided to you until payment has been received.

Reproduction costs:

Where charges are applied, photocopied information will be charged at a standard rate of 10p per A4 side of paper (black & white copy) and 30p per A4 side of paper (colour copy).

Computer discs will be charged at the rate of £1.00 per CD-rom.

Postage cost:

We will pass on postage charges to the requester at the cost to the authority of sending the information by first class post.

Payment of Fees

Fee invoices can be paid by cheque made payable to Registers of Scotland at:

Finance Section
Registers of Scotland
Meadowbank House
153 London Road
Edinburgh EH8 7AU.

Fee invoices can also be paid by Credit/Debit card by telephoning 0845 607 0161.

Records Management

RoS publishes a Document And Records Management Policy and Records Management Policies and Procedures Guidelines. These documents are listed in Part 2 of this Scheme under "Records Management" and can also be accessed via our website.

The Policy recognises records management as a specific corporate function within the Agency. It brings together the responsibilities for all records held by the Agency, throughout their life cycle, from planning and creation through to ultimate disposal.

This page will be updated when RoS establishes its new records management structure in consequence of the Electronic Documents and Records Management Project which should be within the next twelve months.

Records are disposed of once they have reached the agreed end of their retention period and have been reviewed. Disposal schedules will be maintained within Central Records Management and each Directorate/Business Units. Disposal will be the responsibility of the Directorate Information Officer in conjunction with the Central Records Management Unit. A record of the destruction of records, showing their reference, description, reason for destruction, and date of destruction, will be maintained and preserved by the Central Records Management Unit.

Complaints about the Publication Scheme

All complaints about this Publication Scheme will be fully and fairly investigated.

If you have a complaint you should initially follow our complaints procedure as explained on our website <http://www.ros.gov.uk/customerservices/puttingthingsright.html>. The first point of contact should be the Account Manager who has responsibility for the Scheme: kathy.mcneil@ros.gov.uk

If you exhaust our complaints procedure without being satisfied that your complaint has been fairly dealt with, you can refer your complaint to the Scottish Information Commission at the address below:

Scottish Information Commissioner,
Kinburn Castle,
Doubledykes Road,
St Andrews,
Fife
KY16 9DS
Telephone: 01334 464610
Or by e-mail to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

How to Access Information not available under the RoS FOI Publication Scheme

If the information you are seeking is not available under this publication scheme, then you may wish to request it from us. The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA) provides you with a right of access to the information we hold, subject to certain exemptions. The Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 (EIRs) separately provide a right of access to the environmental information we hold, while the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA) provides a right of access to any personal information about you that we hold. Again, these rights are subject to certain exceptions or exemptions.

To request information, please write to our Customer Service Centres (contact details on p 8 and 9). When making a request please let us have full contact details including a telephone number so that we may contact you to clarify your request if necessary. If we are unsure exactly what information you require we will contact you to clarify your request.

Charges for information which is not available under the scheme:

The charges for information which is available under this scheme are set out on page 9 under "Charging". If you submit a request to us for information which is not available under the scheme the charges will be based on the following calculations:

General information requests:

- There will be no charge for information requests which cost us £100 or less to process.
- Where information costs between £100 and £600 to provide you may be asked to pay 10% of the cost. That is, if you were to ask for information that cost us £600 to provide, you would be asked to pay £50, that calculated on the basis of a waiver for the first £100 and 10% of the remaining £500.
- We are not obliged to respond to requests which will cost us over £600 to process.
- In calculating any fee, staff time will be calculated at actual cost per staff member hourly salary rate to a maximum of £15 per person per hour.
- We do not charge for the time to determine whether we hold the information requested, nor for the time it takes to decide whether the information can be released. Charges may be made for locating, retrieving and providing information to you.
- In the event that we decide to impose a charge we will issue you with notification of the charge (a fees notice) and how it has been calculated. You will have three months from the date of issue of the fees notice in which to decide whether to pay the charge. The information will be provided to you on payment of the charge. If you decide not to proceed with the request there will be no charge to you.

Charges for environmental information:

We do not charge for the time to determine whether we hold the information requested, nor for the time it takes to decide whether the information can be released. Charges may be made for locating, retrieving and providing information to you.

In the event that we decide to impose a charge we will issue you with notification of the charge and how it has been calculated. The information will be provided to you on payment of the charge. If you decide not to proceed with the request there will be no charge to you. Charges are calculated on the basis of the actual cost to RoS of providing the information.

- Photocopying is charged at 10p per A4 sheet for black and white copying, 30p per A4 sheet for colour copying.
- Postage is charged at actual rate for first class mail.
- Staff time is calculated at actual cost per staff member hourly salary rate to a maximum of £15 per person per hour.

The first £100 worth of information will be provided to you without charge.

Exemptions

Section 1 of FOISA entitles everyone who requests information from RoS to be given it, if such information is held by RoS, and provided that the information is not covered by one or more of the specific exemptions set out in FOISA.

Exemptions are detailed in Part 2 of FOISA and information may be withheld from one of the classes of information listed in the publication scheme if, for example, one of these exemptions expressly permits it.

For example, information may be withheld if it can be reasonably obtained by other means, it would breach the law of confidentiality, it may harm an organisation's commercial interests, or is personal data.

Timescales and appeal procedures

FOISA requires that responses to requests for information under Section 1 be dispatched no later than the 20th working day after the public authority receives the request.

There is a formal appeal process where you can request a review of any decision we make to withhold information. This request must be made within 40 days of the original decision. The decision to withhold information will then be reviewed by a senior official within RoS who has had no involvement in the original decision on your request. Our response must be dispatched no later than the 20th working day of your request for review.

If you are still dissatisfied with the review decision, there is a right of appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner. Further details on this process are available on the Commissioner's website at www.itspublicknowledge.info

Added value services

In addition to making information available via this publication scheme, RoS also offers a selection of added value services.

Registers Direct

For people who frequently have to contact our customer Service Centres to request information from the registers, the Registers Direct online service may offer a more convenient way of accessing the information. Details of Registers Direct can be found on the www.ros.gov.uk website or upon request from our Customer Service Centres. Users of the service are credit checked before they are registered, and there is a charge for using this service.

Business Customer Products

RoS offers a range of added value services aimed at business customers, which involve the research, manipulation and presentation of data from the registers.

Those interested in these should note that fees for these are set by reference to a cost recovery method. Factors such as staff time, data production and the manipulation of raw data are taken into consideration. If a fee is applicable we will advise you of this at the time and show how it has been calculated.

Information Fair Trader Scheme

RoS is accredited by the Information Fair Trader Scheme. The Information Fair Trader Scheme is a scheme administered by the Office of Public Sector Information to ensure that Government departments selling information do so in an open, transparent and fair manner and that government policy on the re-use of Crown copyright is implemented. To be recognised as an Information Fair Trader an organisation has to demonstrate best practice in this field and that as an organisation it is committed to the fair trader principles.

Accreditation under the IFTS also indicates that RoS complies with the requirements of the Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005.

Further information about the Information Fair Trader Scheme can be found at <http://www.opsi.gov.uk/ifts/index.htm>
